I understand that in order to provide a family friendly atmosphere that honors the Creator and uplifts its guests, Pine Summit strictly prohibits alcohol, illegal drugs, pets, littering, tagging, fireworks, and open flames in any form. Tobacco use is not allowed except in designated outside areas on the grounds and if it is discovered that smoking has occurred inside any building an additional charge of $150.00 per occurrence will be imposed on my credit card. Any damage or excess wear and filth on the property and/or in the buildings will be billed at current labor and material costs to return it to its original condition and will be charged to my credit card. This document will be kept in a secured location for seven to thirty days.
